Tim Hilborn (Drums, Percussion, Vocals)

Having studied with David Garibaldi (Tower of Power) and Steve Smith (Journey and Vital Information), Tim lends a strong groove to the music of ZANZIBAR. He has performed on a regular basis at many of the venues throughout the Bay Area.

Rudy Ramirez (Guitar, Percussion)

Hailing from Costa Rica, "El Professor" is the latest addition to ZANZIBAR. He grew up in the multi-cultural Mission District in San Francisco and brings a warm ethnic touch along with his frantic rhythm guitar.

Ricardo Molina (Percussion, Vocals)

Growing up on classic rock, Ricardo later discovered Afro-Cuban music having researched and studied it with passion. His percussion playing adds a wonderful layer of groove to ZANZIBAR!

Eric Tabellion (Bass, Percussion)

If you've ever watched Shrek, Madagascar or any other Dreamwork's movie, then you've probably seen Eric's work. Master of digital lighting, Eric brings that same attention to detail with his bass playing to ZANZIBAR.
